

14 Days from PPR to Corsica :

Day 1: Porquerolles – Anchorage for the night at the Baie de l’Alicastre.

Day 2: Calvi – Beautiful sights with a chance that you might discover dolphins, turtles and even whales.

Day 3: Natural Reserve Scandola / La Girolata – After visiting the citadel of Calvi, navigate to the South and the natural reserve of Scandola.

Day 4: Ajaccio – A wonderful day of sailing along the coast as far as the îles Sanguinaires (Bloody Islands). Arrival at Ajaccio in the late afternoon.

Day 5: Porto Polo – Visit the city of Napoelon and sail further to the paradisiacal anchorage of Cala d’Orzu where you may have lunch at the famous straw hut.

Day 6: Cargèse – Navigate towards the North to anchor in the late afternoon at Cargèse, a picturesque village.

Day 7: Calvi – Anchor at the magnificent cliff of Piana for lunch, an exceptional landscape.

Day 8: St. Florent – Sail towards the Désert des Agriates. Anchor at the breathtaking beach of Saleccia. Overnight at St. Florent.

Day 9: Centuri – Sail around the Cap Corse: untouched nature with extraordinary landscapes. Centuri is a small picturesque harbour.

Day 10: St Tropez – Anchorage at Pampelonne Bay.

Day 11: Bonporteau Bay – Discover the old harbor, the citadel and the charming old city. Stroll along the narrow roads and visit the Annonciade Museum.

Day 12: Ile de Port Cros – A beautiful anchorage in the North at a beach encircled with pine trees.

Day 13: Let yourself be guided by an array of indicated botanical paths as you discover the exceptional landscape of Port Cros. For snorkeling fans, the undersea discovery is a must. Short sail towards the Baie de l’Alicastre at Porquerolles.

Day 14: Porquerolles – A small paradise where driving cars is strictly forbidden. Porquerolles can be visited on bicycle or by foot. This village with its small harbour are a perfect spot to relax.